The Rule provides definitions to be utilized when reading Chapter 113 of the Ohio Administrative Code. TOS proposes renumbering the Rule by removing the introductory clause from paragraph A and having the introductory language remain unnumbered for ease of readability. The definition for new paragraph A (formerly (A) (1)) has been amended to include state bureaus, offices, and pension systems. TOS also proposes adding language describing accounts in the custody of the treasurer so that it mirrors how such accounts are described in the Ohio Revised Code.

Proposed paragraph C is substantively the same as the current paragraph. However, proposed paragraph C has been reworded to better identify the role of the office of budget and management with respect to prescribing the correct form for payments into the state treasury and TOS' role in prescribing the form for payments into state custodial accounts.

Proposed paragraph D has been modified to describe what "ACH" means more accurately. The current definition provides only what the letters A - C - H stand for whereas the proposed amendment provides a more descriptive definition providing the reader with a better understanding of what the ACH system is.
