Sub. H.B. 95 of the 125th General Assembly, Sec 29

6. State the reason(s) for proposing (i.e., why are you filing,) this rule:

To adopt substantial portions of Chapter 1 of the 2003 International Fire Code as amended, to revise and update the administrative rules comprising the Ohio Fire Code, and to implement fire marshal administrative, operational and licensing provisions.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; If the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

The rule contains administrative provisions for implementing fire code regulations affecting or relating to structures, processes and premises and safeguards from the hazard of fire or explosion. This rule provides for fire marshal administration of various code enforcement, administrative and licensing functions.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

The documents listed in proposed rule 1301:7-7-45 of the Ohio Administrative Code that are incorporated by reference into this rule are generally available to affected persons in the following manner:

1) All such documents are published by either other governmental agencies, private organizations or industry associations. All of these publications can be obtained by any person, without any restriction from the organizations that promulgated the documents or other publishing companies that distribute these documents on a national basis. Some of the documents are free, while others can be purchased for a reasonable fee. Rule 1301:7-7-45 of the Ohio Administrative Code lists contact information for each of the organizations that publish the documents listed in rule 1301:7-7-45 of the Ohio Administrative Code that are incorporated by reference into this rule.

2) Many of these documents are also available at public libraries throughout the state. Many documents may also be accessed through the State Fire Marshal's office or the Board of Building Standards or through local government authorities (including fire departments). Some documents are also available on the world wide web for free or for a reasonable access cost.

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

Not applicable.

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:

Not Applicable.

11. If revising or refiling this rule, identify changes made from the previously filed version of this rule; if none, please state so:

Not Applicable.

12. 119.032 Rule Review Date:

(If the rule is not exempt and you answered NO to question No. 1, provide the scheduled review date. If you answered YES to No. 1, the review date for this rule is the filing date.)

NOTE: If the rule is not exempt at the time of final filing, two dates are required: the current review date plus a date not to exceed 5 years from the effective date for Amended rules or a date not to exceed 5 years from the review date for No Change rules.
