The Rule describes the methods by which a person may determine the time and place for all regularly scheduled and special meetings of the State Board of Deposit. TOS proposes removing current paragraph (B)(3) because the press room at the Statehouse is no longer utilized as it was when the Rule was originally written. Consequently, posting notice of meetings on the bulletin board there is no longer as effective in disseminating notice to the public. To this end, TOS is also clarifying in new paragraph (B)(3) that meetings will be noticed by posting on the Ohio Treasurer of State's website, not the Board of Deposit's, as there is no website for the Board of Deposit. TOS proposed changes to paragraph (C) to improve readability and to clarify how persons may obtain notice of Board of Deposit meetings to their email accounts, while also expanding the Rule to include notice being provided to such persons for both special and scheduled meetings. Finally, TOS proposes deleting language that provides that notification to interested persons will be for one year only and only upon reapplication thereafter.
