If a financial institution chooses to participate in the Ohio Pooled Collateral Program and submits a letter of intent to the Treasurer's office, the rule grants such financial institution a grace period during which the financial institution can transition into the program. The rule also explains how the letter of intent will be reviewed and what steps must be taken by the financial institution after it is either accepted or rejected for the program. Corrected some drafting errors in (A)(2), (A)(3), (A)(5), (A)(6), and (B)(1).

Removed the last portion of (E)(3) to clarify that the reporting requirements are required under the Revised Code and under rules to be adopted by the Treasurer of State, not the Board of Deposit. Removed all incorporation by reference and fixed cross-references.
