This rule establishes the requirements for any provider of personal care who wants to be certified by ODA.

ODA proposes to amend this rule to do the following:

On June 11, 2020, ODA also adopted an emergency amendment to the definition of "personal care" in this rule. The amendment temporarily gave providers flexibility to consider errands outside the presence of the individual (e.g., picking up a prescription) as part of "personal care." ODA proposes to adopt this amendment on an ongoing basis.

Insert "when authorized in a person-centered services plan" after "Personal care activities include the following" in paragraph (A)(1) of the rule. This amendment brings the definition into alignment with the person-centered planning requirements in rule 5160-44-02 of the Administrative Code.

Delete the definition of "PCA," because ODA is simultaneously proposing to add a definition of "PCA" to rule 173-39-01 of the Administrative Code that will apply to the entire chapter.

Replace occurrences of "continuing education and "in-service continuing education" with "in-service training."

Replace "training dates; training locations; training hours successfully completed; instruction materials used; subjects covered; and to verify the accuracy of the record, the name, qualifications, and signature of each trainer and of each tester: in paragraph (B)(3)(e)(i) of the rule with "name of the school or training organization, name of the course, training dates, and training hours successfully completed.

Add "expired" as a valid option in paragraph (B)(3)(e)(ii) of the rule.

Delete the need to verify a person's name in paragraph (B)(3)(e)(iii) of the rule.

Add paragraph (B)(3)(f) of the rule to establish standards that remote training is acceptable, but skills testing by return demonstration is only acceptable if conducted in person.

Delete from paragraph (B)(5)(d) of the rule an obsolete paragraph citation from a reference to rule 173-39-02 of the Administrative Code.

8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
