

TO BE RESCINDED

173-39-05.1 Non-disciplinary action resulting in certification revocation.

- (A) ODA (or its designee) may take the non-disciplinary action of revoking a provider's certification in any of the following situations:
- (1) The provider has voluntarily failed to enter into or renew a provider agreement with ODA's designee.
 - (2) The provider has accepted referrals from ODA's designee, but has not billed or otherwise submitted a claim for payment to ODA (or ODA's designee) under a medicaid-funded program during the last two years.
 - (3) The provider has ceased doing business.
 - (4) The provider has voluntarily relinquished its certification, for any reason.
- (B) According to section 173.391 of the Revised Code, ODA is not required to give a provider an opportunity to appeal the non-disciplinary actions under paragraph (A) of this rule.
