

173-39-05.1

Non-disciplinary action resulting in certification revocation.

(A) ODA (or its designee) may take the non-disciplinary action of revoking a provider's certification in any of the following situations:

(1) The provider has accepted referrals from ODA's designee, but has not billed or otherwise submitted a claim for payment to ODA (or ODA's designee) under a Medicaid-funded program during the last two years.

(2) The provider has ceased doing business.

(3) The provider has voluntarily relinquished its certification, for any reason.

(B) According to section 173.391 of the Revised Code, ODA is not required to hold a hearing to give a provider an opportunity to appeal the non-disciplinary actions under paragraph (A) of this rule.
