173-9-03.1Background checks for paid direct-care positions: reviewingdatabases (for the self-employed).

(A) Databases to review: Any time this rule requires a responsible party to review a selfemployed provider's status in databases, the responsible party shall review the six databases listed in paragraphs (A)(1) to  $(A)(6) \cdot (A)(7)$  of this rule. In the following table, ODA listed the web address (URL) on which each database was accessible to the public at the time of this rule's adoption. If a URL listed in the table becomes obsolete, please consult with the government entity publishing the database for an updated URL.

- (1) When the self-employed provider applies to become ODA-certified or bids for an AAA-provider agreement, the responsible party shall review the self-employed provider's status in the databases before checking the self-employed provider's criminal records.
- (2) After the self-employed provider is ODA-certified or has entered into an AAA-provider agreement, the responsible party may review the self-employed provider's status in the databases at any time. But, the responsible party shall review the self-employed provider's status in the databases no less often than each time that the responsible party conducts a criminal records check according to one of the schedules in rule 173-9-04.1 of the Administrative Code. If the self-employed provider provides services equivalent to one of the direct-care positions under paragraph (B) of rule 173-9-02 of the Administrative Code, the responsible party is not required to conduct subsequent databased reviews and criminal records checks after the self-employed provider becomes ODA-certified or has entered into an AAA-provider agreement.
- (C) Disqualifying status: No responsible party shall certify a self-employed provider to provide a direct-care service, enter into an AAA-provider agreement with a self-employed provider, fail to terminate an AAA-provider agreement with a selfemployed provider, or fail to revoke a self-employed provider's certification, if the self-employed person's status in the databases reveals that one or more of the databases in paragraphs (A)(1) to (A)(5)-(A)(6) of this rule lists the self-employed provider or the database in paragraph (A)(6)-(A)(7) of this rule lists the self-employed provider as a person who neglected or abused a long-term care facility resident or residential care facility resident or misappropriated such a resident's property.
