- ~~(C)~~(D) Pursuant to division (A) of section 3721.161 of the Revised Code ~~The the resident or his resident's sponsor may challenge a proposed transfer or discharge request an impartial hearing by mailing submitting a written request for a hearing to the legal services office of the department not later than ten thirty days after the resident and~~ his or resident's sponsor receive notice of the proposed transfer or discharge, whichever is later. On receiving the request the department shall conduct a hearing in accordance with section 3721.162 of the Revised Code and paragraphs (A) to (E) of rule 3701-61-04 of the Administrative Code to determine whether the proposed transfer or discharge complies with division (A)(30) of section 3721.13 of the Revised Code and paragraphs (A)(1) to (A)(7) of rule 3701-61-02 of the Administrative Code.

(E) Except in the circumstances described in paragraphs (A)(1) to (A)(5) of this rule, if a resident or resident's sponsor submits a written hearing request not later than ten days after the resident or resident's sponsor received notice of the proposed transfer or discharge, whichever is later, the home shall not transfer or discharge the resident unless the department determines after the hearing that the transfer or discharge complies with division (A)(30) of section 3721.13 of the Revised Code and paragraphs (A)(1) to (A)(7) of rule 3701-61-02 of the Administrative Code or the department's determination to the contrary is reversed on appeal.

(F) If a resident or resident's sponsor does not request a hearing pursuant to paragraph (D) of this rule the home may transfer or discharge the resident on the date specified in the notice required by paragraph (A) of this rule or thereafter, unless the home and the resident or, if the resident is not competent to make a decision, the home and the resident's sponsor, agree to an earlier date.

(G) If a resident or resident's sponsor requests a hearing pursuant to paragraph (D) of this rule and the home transfers or discharges the resident before the department issues a hearing decision, the home shall readmit the resident in the first available bed if the department determines after the hearing that the transfer does not comply with division (A)(30) of section 3721.13 of the Revised Code or the department's determination to the contrary is reversed on appeal.

~~(D) If requested, an impartial hearing shall be held by the department within ten days after the department receives the written request for a hearing. A representative of the department shall preside over the hearing.~~

~~(E) The director may order a consolidation of hearings when the residents or sponsors challenge a transfer or discharge that involves a common set of circumstances. Such consolidation of hearings may be made for the convenience of hearings, for preventing the multiplicity of actions and for the saving of costs. The director may order the consolidation only if the consolidated hearing can be held no later than ten days after the director receives the written requests for the hearings.~~

~~(F) The hearing shall be held in the home and the date and time of the hearing shall be determined by the representative of the department presiding over the hearing. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing shall be sent by certified mail to the administrator, resident, and any sponsor within two full business days for employees of the department after receipt of a request. This notice shall also inform~~

~~the administrator, resident, and any sponsor that they have a right to appear at the hearing in person or by their attorneys or other representatives. No scheduled hearings may be postponed except by agreement of both parties. The hearing shall be dismissed if neither party is present or represented at the hearing. If only one party appears or is represented, the hearing shall proceed on an ex parte basis.~~

~~(G) The administrator shall have the opportunity to present to the representative of the department any oral testimony or written materials to show by a preponderance of the evidence just cause why a transfer or discharge may be made pursuant to division (A)(30) of section 3721.13 of the Revised Code. The resident and any sponsor shall also have an opportunity to present to the representative of the department any oral testimony or written material to show just cause why a transfer or discharge should not be made. The representative of the department, administrator, resident, any sponsor and any representatives of the foregoing may ask questions of any person participating in the hearing. The hearing shall be informal in nature but all parties shall respect directives of the representative of the department for the orderly conduct of the hearing. The evidence shall be presented under oath and the hearing shall be tape recorded. Any person participating in the hearing may obtain a copy of the tape upon payment of the cost of reproduction to the director.~~

~~(H) An impartial hearing on resident transfer or discharge is not subject to section 121.22 of the Revised Code.~~

~~(I)~~(H) ~~The home shall document the medical reasons for the transfer~~ Transfer or discharge actions shall be documented ~~in the resident's medical record upon proposal of the transfer or discharge if there is a medical basis for the action.~~
