Monitoring and compliance.

- (A) The director may at any time he or she deems necessary require a monitoring visit of any county receiving Ohio early start funding to determine compliance with Chapter 3701-8 of the Administrative Code. The monitoring visit shall be conducted by a team comprised of the director of health or his or her designee, who shall serve as team coordinator, and may include the following directors or their respective designees of the department of education, the department of human services, the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the department of mental health, the department of alcohol and drug addiction services and the office of budget and management. An additional member shall be a parent of a child that is receiving or has received direct services under Ohio early start and shall be designated by the director of health.
- (B) The monitoring team may perform an on-site visit to observe the administration of early start direct services and may examine any records of the county relevant to Ohio early start. The county shall not refuse a monitoring visit, fail to produce access to relevant records or otherwise interfere with the monitoring visit. The monitoring team shall submit to the director of health a written report detailing any failure to comply with Chapter 3701-8 of the Administrative Code. The director shall determine whether the county is complying with Chapter 3701-8 of the Administrative Code within ten days of receiving the monitoring team's report and shall notify the county of any determination that the county did not comply or is not in compliance.
- (C) The director shall not pay funds to a county providing early start direct services after the county receives the director's determination that the county did not comply or is not in compliance with Chapter 3701-8 of the Administrative Code. The director's determination is not subject to appeal.
- (D) Delivery of all notices or correspondence under Chapter 3701-8 of the Administrative Code to the county regarding Ohio early start funds shall be made to the county's named administrative or fiscal agent.
