General provisions and prohibitions.RULE SUMMARY

1. Is the rule being filed consistent with the requirements of the RC 119.032 review? Yes

2. Are you proposing this rule as a result of recent legislation? No

3. Statute prescribing the procedure in accordance with the agency is required to adopt the rule: 119.03

4. Statute(s) authorizing agency to adopt the rule: 3702.11, 3702.13

5. Statute(s) the rule, as filed, amplifies or implements: 3702.11, 3702.12, 3702.13, 3702.14, 3702.141, 3702.15, 3702.16, 3702.18, 3702.19, 3702.20

6. State the reason(s) for proposing (i.e., why are you filing,) this rule:

ODH has reviewed this rule pursuant to R.C. 119.032 (five-year review) and is proposing it with amendments.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; if the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

This rule sets forth general provisions and prohibitions applicable to health care services. For example, the rule states that no person or agency can operate a health care service that does not comply with the requirements of Chapter 3701-84; prohibits persons or agencies from interfering with the Director of Health's inspection or investigation of an HCS; and requires every provider to ensure that the building where the HCS is located is in compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws. The proposed amendments clarify what constitutes "interference" with an inspection or investigation of an HCS.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

This rule references sections of the Revised and Administrative Codes, which are the accepted laws and regulations of the state of Ohio. The ORC and OAC are generally available in libraries and on the internet to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule.

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

Pursuant to ORC 121.71 to 121.74, the ORC and OAC are exempt.

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:

Not Applicable.

11. If revising or refiling this rule, identify changes made from the previously filed version of this rule; if none, please state so:

ODH is refiling this rule with no additional changes. The rule was TBR-ed on April 13th in order to keep it on the same schedule as several other rules in the package which needed to be pulled for corrections.

12. 119.032 Rule Review Date: 3/1/2007

(If the rule is not exempt and you answered NO to question No. 1, provide the scheduled review date. If you answered YES to No. 1, the review date for this rule is the filing date.)

NOTE: If the rule is not exempt at the time of final filing, two dates are required: the current review date plus a date not to exceed 5 years from the effective date for Amended rules or a date not to exceed 5 years from the review date for No Change rules.
