Notification of availability of funds.

The commission shall notify prospective grantees that grant dollars for the biennium are available by:

- (A) Distributing requests for proposals and/or notices to those agencies registered with the commission. The request for proposal in any fiscal year shall clearly delineate the following:
 - (1) Priority areas for funding during the grant period;
 - (2) Limitations on utilization of resources or activities; and
 - (3) The manner in which applications will be reviewed and the criteria utilized for funding decisions;
- (B) Placing public notices in metropolitan newspapers within five days of distributing requests for proposals advising the availability of funds and the process to obtain a grant application; and
- (C) Distribution of a notice regarding availability of funds to large statewide and/or regional agencies whose purpose is to provide lupus services.
