Commission meeting.

- (A) Public meetings. All commission meetings are public meetings. However, executive sessions may be closed to the public provided that the adoption or passage of a resolution, rule, regulation or other formal action is not involved.
- (B) Executive sessions. The commission may hold an executive session at a regular or special meeting for the following purposes:

 - (2) To consider information required to be kept confidential by federal or state law.
 - (3) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion or compensation of a commission employee or official. Such session may be held to investigate charges or complaints against a commission employee or official provided, however, that such commission employee or official may request a public hearing. Furthermore, any final disposition of such matter shall be made in open meeting.
