

4112-3-11

Reconsideration of final orders.

- (A) The commission, on its own motion or by motion of any party, may set aside any final order and, after reasonable notice has been given, take ~~such~~ action as it may deem necessary, including reinstating or modifying in whole or in part any finding or order previously made by it.
- (B) In reconsidering any final order, the commission may consider the following:
- (1) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect;
  - (2) Newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered prior to the public hearing;
  - (3) Fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of a party; or
  - (4) Any other reason for setting aside in whole or in part the final order previously issued.
