TYPE of rule filing

Rule Title/Tag Line

Equipment of snowmobiles, off-highway motorcycles, and all-purpose vehicles.*RULE SUMMARY

1. Is the rule being filed consistent with the requirements of the RC 119.032 review? No

2. Are you proposing this rule as a result of recent legislation? No

3. Statute prescribing the procedure in accordance with the agency is required to adopt the rule: 119.03

4. Statute(s) authorizing agency to adopt the rule: R.C. 4519.20

5. Statute(s) the rule, as filed, amplifies or implements: R.C. 4519.20

6. State the reason(s) for proposing (i.e., why are you filing,) this rule:

This filing is based on a five-year, R.C. 119.032 rule review of Rule 4501-29-01 of the Ohio Administrative Code. While this new rule is being proposed for adoption, simultaneously an existing rule with the same title and rule number is being proposed for rescission.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; if the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

This rule provides requirements for the equipment of snowmobiles, off-highway motorcycles, and all-purpose vehicles.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

Under R.C. Section 121.75 incorporated references including, without limitation, federal regulations and generally accepted industry standards, are exempted from the provisions of R.C. 121.71 to 121.74 so long as the incorporation by reference consists of a citation that will be intelligible to the persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule and that, if the incorporated material was, is, or reasonably can be expected to be subject to change, identifies, and specifies the date of the particular version that is incorporated. The documents listed in rule 4501-29-01 of the Ohio Administrative Code that are incorporated by reference in this rule are generally available to affected persons. All such documents are published by the federal government or private organizations or industry associations and can be obtained by any person, without restriction, from the organizations that promulgated the documents or other publishing companies that distribute these documents on a national basis. Some of the documents are free, while others can be purchased for a reasonable fee. To assure that incorporated material is generally available to persons affected by rule 4501-29-01, the rule provides (as applicable) address, telephone number, and website information for obtaining the cited material. Many of these documents are also available at depository libraries and other public libraries throughout Ohio.

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

Under R.C. Section 121.75 incorporated references including, without limitation, federal regulations and generally accepted industry standards, are exempted from the provisions of R.C. 121.71 to 121.74 so long as the incorporation by reference consists of a citation that will be intelligible to the persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule and that, if the incorporated material was, is, or reasonably can be expected to be subject to change, identifies, and specifies the date of the particular version that is incorporated. The documents listed in rule 4501-29-01 of the Ohio Administrative Code that are incorporated by reference in this rule are generally available to affected persons. All such documents are published by the federal government or private organizations or industry associations and can be obtained by any person, without restriction, from the organizations that promulgated the documents or other publishing companies that distribute these documents on a national basis. Some of the documents are free, while others can be purchased for a reasonable fee. To assure that incorporated material is generally available to persons affected by rule 4501-29-01, the rule provides (as applicable) address, telephone number, and website information for obtaining the cited material. Many of these documents are also available at depository libraries and other public libraries throughout Ohio.

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:

Not Applicable.

11. If revising or refiling this rule, identify changes made from the previously filed version of this rule; if none, please state so:

Not Applicable.

12. 119.032 Rule Review Date:

(If the rule is not exempt and you answered NO to question No. 1, provide the scheduled review date. If you answered YES to No. 1, the review date for this rule is the filing date.)

NOTE: If the rule is not exempt at the time of final filing, two dates are required: the current review date plus a date not to exceed 5 years from the effective date for Amended rules or a date not to exceed 5 years from the review date for No Change rules.
