

4501:1-7-01 Application for special license plates issued to volunteer firefighters.

- (A) Any person who is volunteer firefighter may apply for registration of one motor vehicle and for a set of volunteer firefighter special license plates.
- (B) The registrar shall prescribe the form and contents of the registration application. The application or an accompanying document prescribed by the registrar shall require the signatures of both the applicant and the chief or assistant chief of the fire department certifying that the applicant is a volunteer firefighter. The registrar may require any other evidence the registrar deems necessary to determine whether the applicant meets all requirements for the registration of the vehicle and the issuance of volunteer firefighter special plates. The registrar shall reject any application which fails to meet any requirement.
- (C) The registrar shall specify the design of the volunteer firefighter special plates in accordance with statutory requirements.
