Funeral directors' examination and subjects.

- (A) The examination for an applicant for a funeral director's license shall consist of two distinct sections designated as a nationally recognized examination for funeral service licensure, and the Ohio laws section. An applicant who has not completed mortuary science college shall take a comprehensive funeral service arts examination.
- (B) The Ohio laws section for the examination shall be taken from the following sources:
- (1) Ohio laws governing embalming and funeral directing;
 - (2) Ohio laws governing transportation of dead human bodies;
 - (3) Ohio health laws, rules and regulations governing preparation and transportation of dead human bodies;
 - (4) Ohio laws governing sales tax as related to funeral directing;
 - (5) Ohio laws governing funds provided by the bureau of workers' compensation for final disposition of dead human bodies when the cause of death is work-related;
 - (6) Federal laws governing burial of veterans;
 - (7) Ohio laws governing funeral processions;
 - (8) Ohio laws, rules and regulations governing pre-need funeral contracts;
 - (9) Federal trade commission funeral rules;
 - (10) Occupational, safety, and health administration (OSHA) regulations;
 - (11) Environmental protection agency (EPA) regulations.
- (C) A grade of seventy-five per cent or higher on each of the sections shall be considered a passing grade.
- (D) Qualifications for re-examination

Any applicant who has failed an embalmers' examination will be qualified to retake the examination after a waiting period determined by the examining agency and payment of the applicable fee(s).
