This rule establishes a code of ethics governing the professional conduct of audiologists, speech-language pathologists, conditional speech-language pathologists and aides. The public purpose of this rule is to ensure consumer protection by establishing ethical standards that licensees must adhere to when providing professional services to consumers. The rule is being amended primarily due to the board consolidation pursuant to Am. Sub. H.B. 49 (132nd G.A.), which requires that the Board define specific professional conduct under a code of ethics pursuant to R.C. 4744.50. The Board is also amending this rule to update the code of ethics under Chapter 4753.

- 8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
- If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.71 to 121.76, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.
