

4765-11-08

Reinstatement of a revoked charter or classification.

- (A) The executive director is not obligated to reinstate a charter or classification that has been previously revoked.
- (B) The executive director shall not reinstate a charter or classification that has been revoked less than one year from the date on which the revocation order is journalized with the executive director.
- (C) A chartered program's charter or classification that has been revoked by the executive director for at least one year but no more than three years is eligible for reinstatement after one year. The training program must meet all requirements for a charter as outlined in rule 4765-11-03 of the Administrative Code.
- (D) The executive director shall not reinstate a charter or classification that has been permanently revoked.
- (E) A chartered program that qualifies for reinstatement is eligible to be reinstated at any classification at or below the level previously held by such training program.
- (F) In addition to having a training program meet the requirements set forth in this rule, the executive director may also take into consideration other relevant factors, including but not limited to the following, when determining whether to grant a request for reinstatement:
- (1) The nature and severity of the acts which resulted in revocation of the charter;
 - (2) The time elapsed since the revocation of the charter;
 - (3) Evidence of additional violations occurring after the revocation;
 - (4) Compliance with previous executive director orders or executive director approved consent agreements.
