13. What are the estimated costs of compliance for all persons and/or organizations directly affected by the rule?

Costs of compliance for accredited institutions (stakeholders) vary depending on the levels of training provided, typical class size, instructor salaries, supplies, equipment, and affiliations as the institution deems appropriate. The institutions have the sole ability to dictate the tuition costs of their programs based on budgetary needs. These regulations do not require an institution to provide specific levels of EMS training programs, only those that the institution has voluntarily applied to provide. In general, accredited institutions provide EMR training for a tuition fee of $300 to $700.
