Rule 4765-16-03 sets forth the continuing education (CE) standards for AEMTs (EMT-Is), including the number of hours required in the areas of pediatric, geriatric, and trauma issues; refresher program requirements; the use of national registry registration and trauma triage training for complying with CE requirements;

examination requirements; and the renewal application. This rule refers readers to the incorporated by reference rule.

Rule OAC 4765-16-03 is proposed to be amended to update materials referenced in the rules and to add a comment referring readers to an incorporated by reference rule.

- 8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? Yes
- 9. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.71 to 121.76, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.

OAC rule 4765-16-03 incorporates the form "EMS Renewal Application." To comply with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code, this rule refers readers to OAC rule 4765-1-03, which provides the editions and dates of the materials and the website addresses where the information may be accessed.

A paper version of "EMS Renewal Application" or form EMS 0043 (August, 2016) is filed with OAC 4765-1-03 (Incorporated by Reference) as part of a rule package filed on the same date as this package.

"EMS Renewal Application" is made available to a holder of an EMS provider certificate who wishes to renew the certificate and can be accessed at the division's renewal website at <https://services.dps.ohio.gov/EMSProviders>.

12. What are the estimated costs of compliance for all persons and/or organizations directly affected by the rule?

The cost of compliance for certificate holders (stakeholders) to obtain required continuing education may depend upon whether or not an individual's department provides in-service training and the extent to which the scope of practice is adopted into local protocol by the responder's EMS organization and medical director. EMS organizations and their medical directors determine the level of emergency medical services that responders perform.

13. Does the rule increase local government costs? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part B). No

14. Does the rule regulate environmental protection? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part C). No

III. Common Sense Initiative (CSI) Questions

15. Was this rule filed with the Common Sense Initiative Office? Yes

16. Does this rule have an adverse impact on business? Yes

A. Does this rule require a license, permit, or any other prior authorization to engage in or operate a line of business? No

B. Does this rule impose a criminal penalty, a civil penalty, or another sanction, or create a cause of action, for failure to comply with its terms? No

C. Does this rule require specific expenditures or the report of information as a condition of compliance? Yes

This rule in and of itself does not require the report of information, however, certificate holders who are audited are required to provide documentation of CE as a condition of compliance. Each month ten percent of renewed certificates from all levels of EMS and instructor certifications are randomly selected for audit. In addition, any EMS certificate holders who renews while on an extension is audited.

The cost of compliance for certificate holders (stakeholders) to obtain required continuing education may depend upon whether or not an individual's department provides in-service training and the extent to which the scope of practice is adopted into local protocol by the responder's EMS organization and medical director. EMS organizations and their medical directors determine the level of emergency medical services that responders perform.
