12. What are the estimated costs of compliance for all persons and/or organizations directly affected by the rule?

Adverse impacts are costs for accredited institutions, which vary depending on the levels of training provided, typical class size, instructor salaries, supplies, equipment, and affiliations as the institution deems appropriate. The institutions have the sole ability to dictate the tuition costs of their programs based on budgetary needs. These regulations do not require an institution to provide specific levels of EMS training programs, only those that the institution has voluntarily applied to provide. In general, the costs of compliance for the EMS training institutions will vary depending on the level of EMS training and the number of training hours required for each level of certification provided, typical class size, instructor salaries, supplies, equipment, and affiliations as the institution deems appropriate.

The costs of compliance to the EMS student will also vary depending on the level of EMS certification and number of training hours required. In general, tuition costs range from $500-$1200 for EMT training.

13. Does the rule increase local government costs? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part B). No
14. Does the rule regulate environmental protection? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part C). No
