

4765-20-06

Fire training examinations.

- (A) The initial examination for firefighter training will consist of written and practical examinations established by the executive director, with the advice and counsel of the committee, and a passing score of at least seventy percent is required for certification.
- (B) The initial examination for fire safety inspector will consist of a written and practical examinations established by the executive director, with the advice and counsel of the committee, and a passing score of at least seventy percent is required for certification.
- (C) The fire and fire safety inspector instructor knowledge examinations will consist of a written examinations established by the executive director, with the advice and counsel of the committee, and a passing score of at least eighty percent is required.
- (D) The fire and fire safety inspector instructor technique examination will consist of a written and/or practical examinations established by the executive director, with the advice and counsel of the committee, and a passing score of at least seventy percent is required.
- (E) The reinstatement examination will consist of a written test established by the executive director, with the advice and counsel of the committee and a passing score of at least seventy percent is required for reinstatement.

Effective:

R.C. 119.032 review dates:

Certification

Date

Promulgated Under:	119.03
Statutory Authority:	4765.55
Rule Amplifies:	4765.55