6. What are the reasons for proposing the rule?

These rules are being filed as part of a comprehensive five-year rule review and reorganization of the fire training rules in agency 4765 of the OAC, at the request of stakeholders. OAC chapters governing fire charters, fire service and fire instructor training, professional standards, and discipline are proposed to be made consecutive chapters in OAC 4765, and a chapter including definitions and items incorporated by reference as two separate rules has been added. At the request of stakeholders, proposed revisions add language creating a live fire instructor (LFI) certification and a hazard recognition officer (HRO) certification.

- 7. Summarize the rule's content, and if this is an amended rule, also summarize the rule's changes.

OAC Rule 4765-20-12 sets forth the continuing education requirements needed for renewal a fire safety inspector (FSI) or hazard recognition officer (HRO) certificate. The rule includes a requirement for the FSI and HRO certificates to complete not less than four hours of continuing education (CE) pertaining to the fire code, within six months of a new fire code being adopted. This rule includes criteria for organizations providing CE for FSI and HRO certifications. The rule prohibits earning credit for continuing education (CE) for routine duties, prohibits a person from earning more than twelve hours of CE training in one calendar day, and prohibits a person from earning CE credit for the identical online training class taken more than once per calendar year. The rule sets forth the criteria for extensions of time to complete FSI or HRO CE education, record keeping requirements, and military provisions related to firefighter CE.

- 8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
- 9. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.71 to 121.76, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.
