Renewal of a certificate of accreditation.

- (A) No later than ninety days prior to its expiration, the division shall notify each holder of a certificate of accreditation of the certificate's scheduled expiration date and a mechanism for renewal.
- (B) The application for renewal shall clearly indicate the date by which it must be completed and received by the division.
- (C) The board shall renew a certificate of accreditation if all of the following apply:
- (1) The application for renewal is completed and submitted to the division no later than the thirtieth day prior to expiration of the current certificate;
 - (2) The program remains in compliance with the requirements for accreditation as set forth in section 4765.17 of the Revised Code and this chapter;
 - (3) During the accreditation cycle for the EMS training program being renewed, the EMS training program meets one of the following:
 - (a) Not less than eighty per cent of the institution's students who took the written portion of the initial certification examination received a passing score; or
 - (b) Not less than sixty-five percent of the institution's students who took the written portion of the initial certification examination received a passing score in their first attempt to pass the examination.
- (D) In considering an application for renewal of a certificate of accreditation, the board may consider all information relevant to the requirements for accreditation as set forth in section 4765.16 of the Revised Code and this chapter.
- (E) Every twenty-four months after the effective date of this rule, the board shall review the passing percentage requirement established in this rule to determine whether the requirement needs to be amended.
