Renewal of accreditation.

- (A) No later than ninety days prior to its expiration, the division shall distribute an application for renewal to each person who has been issued a certificate of accreditation under section 4765.17 of the Revised Code and this chapter.
- (B) The application for renewal shall clearly indicate the date by which it must be completed and returned to the division.
- (C) The board shall renew a certificate of accreditation if all of the following apply:
 - (1) The application for renewal is completed and submitted to the division no later than the thirtieth day prior to expiration of the current certificate;
 - (2) The program remains in compliance with the requirements for accreditation as set forth in section 4765.17 of the Revised Code and this chapter;
 - (3) During the accreditation cycle for the EMS training program being renewed, not less than eighty per cent of the institution's students who took the written portion of the initial certification examination received a passing score.
- (D) In considering an application for renewal of a certificate of accreditation, the board may consider all information relevant to the requirements for accreditation as set forth in section 4765.16 of the Revised Code and this chapter.
- (E) Eighteen months after the effective date of this rule, the board shall review the passing percentage requirement established in paragraph (C)(3) of this rule to determine whether the requirement needs to be amended. No later than twenty-four months after the effective date of this rule, the board shall determine whether the above passing percentage requirement needs to be amended and if so, shall have draft rule language prepared for final approval.
