

4766-3-14

Regulations for out of state providers.

The exemption from licensure in division (B) of section 4766.09 of the Revised Code exempts out of state ambulette services receiving a client in Ohio for transport to a location not within Ohio or when transporting a client received in another state to an Ohio destination. An out of state ambulette service that receives a client in Ohio for transportation to a location in Ohio shall be licensed and is subject to Chapter 4766. of the Revised Code and rules under this chapter and to all applicable fines and sanctions for any violation thereof.
