Section 4933.25 of the Revised Code, does not require the commission to first hold an oral hearing before it considers such applications. However, before deciding whether to conduct such a hearing, the commission shall follow the procedure set forth in this rule.
- (B) Following the filing of any application set forth in paragraph (A) of this rule, the commission shall review the application to determine its compliance with the requirements of this chapter. If the commission determines that the application is in compliance with the commission's rules, and otherwise appears to be complete, an entry shall be issued which accepts the application, and directs the manner in which public notice of the application is to be accomplished. If the commission determines that the application is not in compliance with the commission's rules, or is otherwise incomplete, an entry shall be issued which directs the manner in which the applicant shall file such information as is necessary to bring the application into compliance or to complete the application.

 - (v) Provide for a period of time within which affected persons or entities may file with the commission, a written statement which both describes the nature of their interest in the application and requests that an oral hearing be held on the application. Unless otherwise ordered by the commission, this period of time shall include at least fourteen days from the last date upon which publication may be made pursuant to the entry calling for publication;
 - (vi) In the case of an application for a "Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity," meet the requirements set forth in rule 4901:1-15-05 of the Administrative Code;

Otherwise the commission may proceed to decide the case without holding an oral hearing, on the basis of the information contained in the application and the affidavits and information submitted to the commission by the applicant. The commission may upon its own motion schedule and hold an oral public hearing on the application at any time during its pendency.
- (3) Entries accepting applications, directing the manner in which notice shall be accomplished and/or scheduling oral hearings shall be served upon the applicant, any affected person or entity who has requested an oral hearing, and upon the board of county commissioners of any county and the chief executive authority of any municipal corporation served or proposed to be served by the application.
