

4901:1-6-07

Applicability of existing commission regulations.

- (A) Existing applicable requirements of the Administrative Code and the Revised Code will still apply to the operations of a telephone company. Absent a waiver, all commission policies will continue to apply to the operations of every telephone company. Examples of such requirements and policies include, but are not limited to, the extended area service rules codified at Chapter 4901:1-7 of the Administrative Code, lifeline services such as service connection assistance (case nos. 89-45-TP-UNC and 91-564-TP-UNC), discounts for persons with communications disabilities (case no. 87-206-TP-COI), blocking of 976 services (case no. 86-1044-TP-COI), disconnection of local service rules (case no. 96-1175-TP-ORD), 9-1-1 service (case no. 86-911-TP-COI), privacy and number disclosure requirements (case no. 93-540-TP-COI), alternative operator service provisions (case no. 88-560-TP-COI), provisions involving customer-owned, coin-operated telephones (case no. 88-452-TP-COI), access charge reform (case no. 00-127-TP-COI), inside wire policies (case no. 86-927-TP-COI), and numbering policies (case no. 97-884-TP-COI).
- (B) The minimum telephone service standards, as they exist today and as subsequently modified by this commission, apply to the regulated services and operations of all telephone companies except to the extent otherwise noted in Chapter 4901:1-5 of the Administrative Code.
- (C) Nothing contained within Chapter 4901:1-6 of the Administrative Code, shall in any way preclude the commission or its staff from:
- (1) Requiring a telephone company to furnish additional information.
 - (2) Initiating an investigation.
 - (3) Monitoring a telephone company's compliance with any of the commission's existing or future policies and procedures.
