

4901:1-6-21

Filing by telephone companies of contracts, agreements, notes, bonds, or other arrangements entered into between telephone companies or with any telephone management, service, or operating company.

(A) All telephone companies are exempted from filing with the commission, pursuant to the provisions of the second paragraph of section 4905.16 of the Revised Code, a copy of any contract, agreement, note, bond, or other arrangement entered into with any telephone management, service, or operating company.

(B) This rule does not relieve any telephone company doing business in the state of Ohio of any duty or obligation imposed by law, nor does it relieve any such telephone company from making any filing directed by an existing order of the commission.
