Limitations on the liability of carriers and reimbursement for lost or damaged goods.

- (A) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, a carrier shall be liable for the replacement value of household goods in the event of loss of, or damage to, such goods during transportation.
- (B) All limitations on liability offered by a carrier must be printed in distinctive color or boldface type on estimates or bills of lading, in the event no written estimate is prepared.
- (C) A carrier shall not be liable for the transportation of perishable articles that are included in the shipment without the knowledge of the carrier. If a carrier knowingly accepts perishable articles, the carrier may impose reasonable conditions necessary to safely transport perishable articles.
- (D) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, no agreement between the consumer and the carrier may be employed to reduce the liability of the carrier for loss of, or damage to, household goods.
- (E) Carriers must offer consumers a choice of at least one, but may offer all three, of the following liability limitation provisions within this paragraph. Limitations offered shall be printed verbatim in distinctive color or boldface type on estimates or bills of lading. (2) Depreciated value for lost or damage goodsConsumer must personally initial

"() I accept reimbursement equal to the depreciated value for lost or damaged goods. I declare a total depreciated value of $ or a minimum of two dollars and twenty-five cents per pound times the weight of the shipment."

(F) No limitation will be effective unless the consumer initials, and where appropriate, inserts the declared value on, the statement on the estimate or bill of lading.

(G) Should the consumer not elect any limitation, the consumer shall be reimbursed for the replacement value of any lost or damaged goods, with no limitation as to the total declared value of the shipment.

(H) No carrier may accept any shipment for transportation unless the carrier has cargo insurance in an amount equal to the declared value of such shipment.

(I) Nothing in this rule shall be construed as prohibiting the carrier and the consumer from agreeing upon a deductible against any reimbursement for lost or damaged goods in the estimate or the bill of lading, in the event that no written estimate was prepared.

(J) No such deductible shall be effective unless the consumer signifies that it elects such limitation by personally initialing the following statement on the estimate or the addendum to the estimate:
