The rule outlines the public children services agency requirement to participate in the child protection oversight and evaluation process. Changes were made to the rule to provide clarity. References to the ODJFS processes related to the state's role in the child protection oversight and evaluation process were deleted as a result of changes to the rule writing process. Specifically, ODJFS no longer references departmental processes in rule. This approach to rule writing resulted in substantive changes to the rule.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

This response left blank because filer specified online that the rule does not incorporate a text or other material by reference.

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

This response left blank because filer specified online that the rule does not incorporate a text or other material by reference.

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:
