Admissions and admissions log.RULE SUMMARY

1. Is the rule being filed consistent with the requirements of the RC 119.032 review? Yes

2. Are you proposing this rule as a result of recent legislation? No

3. Statute prescribing the procedure in accordance with the agency is required to adopt the rule: 119.03

4. Statute(s) authorizing agency to adopt the rule: 5103.03

5. Statute(s) the rule, as filed, amplifies or implements: 5103.02, 5103.03

6. State the reason(s) for proposing (i.e., why are you filing,) this rule:

This rule is being proposed for amendment as a result of the five year review.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; If the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

This rule provides requirements for facility admissions and the admissions log. Paragraph (A) was amended to clarify that a residential facility is required to develop a written admissions policy specifying the type of child who will be accepted and the conditions under which a child would not be accepted. This paragraph also prohibits the facility from accepting a child if acceptance of the child would put the facility over capacity, or if the child does not meet the age or gender criteria. Paragraph (B) allows for the acceptance of a child who does not meet the facility's age or gender criteria if ordered by a court. Paragraph (C) allows for a resident who is eighteen years old, but still in the custody of a court or public children services agency (PCSA), and who is expected to graduate by their nineteenth birthday to remain a resident until graduation. Paragraph (H) was added to require a residential facility to maintain a copy of each child's individual child care agreement between the custodial agency and the facility in the child's record. Language was added in paragraph (K) to require the custodial agency's phone number and address be included on the pre-admission documentation.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

This rule incorporates one or more references to another rule or rules of the Ohio Administrative Code. This question is not applicable to any incorporation by reference to another OAC rule because such reference is exempt from compliance with ORC 121.71 to 121.74 pursuant to ORC 121.76(A)(3).

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

Not Applicable

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:

Not Applicable.

11. If revising or refiling this rule, identify changes made from the previously filed version of this rule; if none, please state so:

The rule was revised to remove proposed language surrounding gender limitations at a residential facility in paragraph (B)

12. 119.032 Rule Review Date: 8/9/2010

(If the rule is not exempt and you answered NO to question No. 1, provide the scheduled review date. If you answered YES to No. 1, the review date for this rule is the filing date.)

NOTE: If the rule is not exempt at the time of final filing, two dates are required: the current review date plus a date not to exceed 5 years from the effective date for Amended rules or a date not to exceed 5 years from the review date for No Change rules.
