ODJFS takes into consideration the age of the equipment, which should not be less than the useful lifetime of the equipment, and the breakdown of the repair charges necessary to make the equipment serviceable. The repair estimates should be compared to the Medicaid fee schedule OAC rule 5101:3-1-60, Appendix DD for the purchase price of the piece of equipment being repaired to determine if repair is justified.

Repair cases suggesting malicious damage, culpable neglect or wrongful disposition of equipment will require additional information to be submitted to ODJFS for review. In cases where ODJFS determines that it is unreasonable to make a program payment under the submitted circumstances, the repair request will be denied.
