Food stamps: types of excluded income.RULE SUMMARY

1. Is the rule being filed consistent with the requirements of the RC 119.032 review? Yes

2. Are you proposing this rule as a result of recent legislation? No

3. Statute prescribing the procedure in accordance with the agency is required to adopt the rule: 111.15

4. Statute(s) authorizing agency to adopt the rule: 5101.54

5. Statute(s) the rule, as filed, amplifies or implements: 329.04, 329.042, 5101.54

6. State the reason(s) for proposing (i.e., why are you filing,) this rule:

This rule is being amended in accordance with Ohio Revised Code section 119.03 which requires each state agency to review its rules a minimum of once every five years.

On May 13, 2002, the President signed Public Law 107-171, which includes the Food Stamp Program reauthorization. Section 4102 provided states the opportunity to simplify the definition of income sources.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; If the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

This rule provides the types of excluded income for the food stamp program. These rules were amended with the following information: all student financial assistance, including grants, scholarships, fellowships, educational loans on which payment is deferred, work study, veterans' educational benefits, and the like, which are awarded to an AG member enrolled at a recognized institution of post-secondary education, at a school for the handicapped, in a vocational education program, in a vocational or technical school, or in a program that provides for obtaining a secondary school diploma or the equivalent of a secondary school diploma shall be excluded from consideration as income for food stamp purposes. The following miscellaneous income exclusions have been added: income from blood and blood plasma sales, income from garage sales, interest income from savings or other financial accounts, and income from bingo winnings. Removal of educational assistance as countable income. Grammatical modifications and addition of reference dates.

8. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference and the agency claims the incorporation by reference is exempt from compliance with sections 121.71 to 121.74 of the Revised Code because the text or other material is generally available to persons who reasonably can be expected to be affected by the rule, provide an explanation of how the text or other material is generally available to those persons:

This response left blank because filer specified online that the rule does not incorporate a text or other material by reference.

9. If the rule incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material electronically, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material electronically was infeasible:

This response left blank because filer specified online that the rule does not incorporate a text or other material by reference.

10. If the rule is being rescinded and incorporates a text or other material by reference, and it was infeasible for the agency to file the text or other material, provide an explanation of why filing the text or other material was infeasible:

Not Applicable.

11. If revising or refiling this rule, identify changes made from the previously filed version of this rule; if none, please state so:

Not Applicable.

12. 119.032 Rule Review Date: 4/1/2003

(If you answered NO to question No. 1, provide the scheduled review date. If you answered YES to No. 1, the review date for this rule is the filing date.)

NOTE: At time of final filing, two dates are required: the current review date plus a date not to exceed 5 years from the effective date for Amended rules or a date not to exceed 5 years from the review date for No Change rules.
