The proposed rule is being filed because House Bill 86 of the 129th General Assembly requires that the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction administer a program for issuing to inmates and offenders under the Department's supervision certificates of achievement and employability, which, when issued to an offender, can potentially facilitate the offender's acquisition of professional licenses and employment opportunities.

7. If the rule is an AMENDMENT, then summarize the changes and the content of the proposed rule; If the rule type is RESCISSION, NEW or NO CHANGE, then summarize the content of the rule:

The proposed rule creates procedures by which offenders who are interested in applying for a certificate of achievement and employability may apply to the Department for a certificate. The proposed rule specifically identifies the types of vocational and rehabilitative programming that, if completed by an offender, qualify the offender for a certificate. In accordance with House Bill 86 of the 129th General Assembly, the proposed rule requires that the Department notify regulatory licensing boards and agencies about applications for certificates that have been filed and that, if approved, will affect the board or agency. The proposed rule allows affected boards and agencies to comment upon pending applications and requires the Department to consider those comments in determining whether to grant or deny an application. As required by House Bill 86, the proposed rule provides for the revocation of a certificate when the certificate holder subsequently commits a criminal offense.
