This rule sets forth the procedures and eligibility for a Certification of Qualification for Employment. The changes enable all petitions to be filed directly with DRC, thus eliminating any processing delays that currently occur as a result of individuals filing petitions with the court and not creating an account that would enable DRC to process the application. Changes are also being made to allow individuals on community control to file early applications for a CQE upon the recommendation of the Chief of Probation or designee where the individual has complied with all special conditions and the individual has no outstanding fines or restitution. This change will enable those who are not sent to prison an opportunity to apply early for a CQE that is consistent with the opportunities afforded to individuals who are sent to prison.
