Medicaid: resource exemption.

(A) This rule describes exempt resources for the purpose of determining medicaid eligibility.

(B) Definitions.

(1) "Administrative agency" means the county department of job and family services, the Ohio department of job and family services, or other entity that determines eligibility for a medical assistance program.

(2) "Home" is defined in rule 5101:1-39-31 of the Administrative Code.

(3) "Individual" means an applicant for or recipient of a medical assistance program.

(4) "Principal place of residence" means the dwelling the individual considers his or her established or principal home and to which, if absent, he or she intends to return. It can be real or personal property, fixed or mobile, and located on land or water.

(5) "Proceeds" means the net amount the seller receives from the sale of an asset.

(C) The following are considered exempt resources:

(1) Household goods and personal effects of a reasonable value as defined in rule 5101:1-39-28 of the Administrative Code.

(2) Automobiles and other modes of transportation as defined in rule 5101:1-39-29 of the Administrative Code.

(3) Life insurance policies as defined in rule 5101:1-39-30 of the Administrative Code.

(4) The home lived in, owned by, and considered the principal place of residence by the individual, the couple, or the parents with whom the eligible child is living.

(a) Only one living place may be established as the principal place of residence.

- (b) A temporary absence of less than six months from the home does not affect the principal place of residence exemption so long as the individual has not established permanent residence elsewhere.
 - (c) The administrative agency must obtain a signed statement, declaring the principal place of residence, when there is an indication the individual resides in more than one place.
 - (d) Treatment of the home for institutionalized individuals is described in rule 5101:1-39-31 of the Administrative Code.
- (5) Real or personal property considered essential to the means of self-support as defined in rule 5101:1-39-33 of the Administrative Code.
- (6) The value of a burial space as defined in rule 5101:1-39-32.2 of the Administrative Code.
- (7) Certain prepaid burial contracts as defined in rule 5101:1-39-27.4 of the Administrative Code.
- (8) Funds received as a result of the housing and urban development (HUD) settlement agreement of January 16, 1979, in the case of Underwood v. Harris, number 76-469 (district court for the District of Columbia, filed March 22, 1976), when any of the HUD settlement funds retained by the individual are kept separate from any other countable resources.
- (9) Cash for in-kind replacement received from any source used for the replacing or repairing an exempt resource which is lost, damaged, or stolen. Any interest earned on such cash payments, is not income. The total amount of cash (including interest earned) or the value of the in-kind replacement is excluded from income and is also exempt as a resource for a period of nine months from the date of receipt.
- (a) If the exemption time expires and the individual has not used all of the cash, any remaining cash (as well as interest earned on such cash) is a countable resource effective the first day of the following month in which the time period expires.
 - (b) The exemption time may be extended for good cause for a reasonable period not to exceed an additional nine months (a total of eighteen months from the date the cash is received).

- (c) Good cause may be found if:
 - (i) The individual made a reasonable effort to contract for or obtain replacement or repair of an exempt resource within the original nine-month period; and
 - (ii) The individual still intends to use any cash received for that purpose.
 - (d) Any change of intent, which occurs during the extension period, will cause the exemption to end. Any cash and interest retained becomes a resource the first day of the month following the month in which the individual reports the change or intent, or the eighteen-month period ends, whichever comes first.
 - (e) Temporary housing received by an individual whose home was destroyed or damaged is also exempt for a period of nine months beginning with the month the temporary housing is first provided. For purposes of this rule, temporary housing includes the value of support and maintenance. When a home is damaged or destroyed and temporary housing is furnished to an individual who owned the home, any form of in-kind support and maintenance is not counted as income.
- (10) Funds held in plans for achieving a self-support (PASS) account in accordance with section 1613(a)(4) of the Social Security Act.
 - (11) The accumulation of payments received under the Agent Orange Compensation Exclusion Act, Pub. L. No. 101-201, as in effect on December 6, 1989, received on or after January 1, 1989.
