An agency which both acquires real property and displaces persons may combine its section 210 and section 305 assurances in one document.
- (2) If a federal agency or state agency provides federal financial assistance to a "person" causing displacement, such federal or state agency is responsible for ensuring compliance with the requirements of the Uniform Act, notwithstanding the person's contractual obligation to the grantee to comply.
- (3) As an alternative to the assurance requirement described in paragraph (D)(1) of this rule, a federal agency may provide federal financial assistance to a state agency after it has accepted a certification by such state agency that it shall operate in accordance with state laws and regulations which shall accomplish the purpose and effect of the Uniform Act.
- (4) Monitoring and corrective action: the federal agency will monitor compliance with this part, and the state agency shall take whatever corrective action is necessary to comply with the Uniform Act and rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code. Each notice shall indicate the name and telephone number of a person who may be contacted for answers to questions or other needed help.
- (G) Administration of jointly funded projects: whenever two or more federal agencies provide financial assistance to an agency or agencies to carry out functionally or geographically related activities which will result in the acquisition of property or the displacement of a person, the agencies may by agreement designate one such agency as the cognizant agency. At a minimum, the agreement shall set forth the federally assisted activities which are subject to its terms and activities under the agreement. Under this agreement, the cognizant agency shall assure that the project is in compliance with the provisions of the Uniform Act and rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code. All federally assisted activities under the agreement shall be deemed a project for the purposes of rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code.
- (H) The agency funding the project may waive any requirements in rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code not required by law if it determines that the waiver does not reduce any assistance or protection provided to an owner or displaced person under these rules. Any request for a waiver shall be justified on a case-by-case basis.
- (I) The implementation of rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code must be in compliance with other applicable federal laws and implementing regulations.
- (J) Recordkeeping and reports: the agency shall maintain adequate records of its acquisition and displacement activities in sufficient detail to demonstrate compliance with rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code. These records shall be retained for at least three years after each owner of a property and each person displaced from the property receives the final payment to which he or she is entitled under rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code, or in accordance with the applicable regulations of the federal funding agency, which ever is later. Records maintained by an agency in accordance with rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code are confidential regarding their use as public information, unless applicable law provides otherwise. The agency shall submit a report of its displacement activities under rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-06 of the Administrative Code if required by the federal agency funding the project. A report will not be required more frequently than every three years, or as the Uniform Act provides, unless the federal funding agency shows good cause.

- (K) Appeals: the agency shall promptly review appeals in accordance with the requirements of applicable law and rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-05 of the Administrative Code. A person may file a written appeal with the agency in any case in which the person believes that the agency has failed to properly consider the person's application for assistance under rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-05 of the Administrative Code. Such assistance may include, but is not limited to the person's eligibility for, or the amount of, a payment required under rules 5501:2-5-01 through 5501:2-5-05 of the Administrative Code. The agency shall consider a written appeal regardless of form.
- (1) Time limit for initiating the appeal: the agency may set a reasonable time limit for a person to file an appeal. The time limit shall not be less than sixty days after the person receives written notification of the agency's determination on the person's claim.
 - (2) Right to representation: a person has the right to be represented by legal counsel or other representative in connection with his or her written appeal, but solely at the person's own expense.
 - (3) Review of files by person making appeal: the agency shall permit a person to inspect and copy all materials pertinent to his or her appeal, except materials which are classified as confidential by the agency. The agency may, however, impose reasonable conditions on the person's right to inspect, consistent with applicable laws.
 - (4) Scope of review of appeal: in deciding an appeal, the agency shall consider all pertinent justification and other material submitted by the person, and all other available information that is needed to ensure a fair and full review of the appeal.
 - (5) Determination and notification after appeal: promptly after receipt of all information submitted by a person in support of an appeal, the agency official conducting the review shall make a written determination on the appeal, including an explanation of the basis on which the decision was made and furnish the person, and their legal counsel, if any, a copy. There is no right of further appeal beyond the decision of the agency official.

- (6) Agency official to review appeal: the agency official conducting the review of the appeal shall be an authorized designee of the director of transportation. However, the official shall not have been directly involved in the action appealed.
