

901:3-31-09

Use of separate grinders, or complete cleanup between processing of pork or pork products and meat or poultry products of other species.

Separate grinders shall be used when the processing of pork or pork products is done simultaneously with or prior to the processing of meat or poultry products of other species. If separate grinders are not provided and used, the establishment will accomplish a complete and thorough cleanup between the processing of pork or pork products and meat or poultry products of other species.
