Dear Mr. McCullough:

This memo is to provide you with an update to the July 23, 2014 filing of Ohio Administrative Code (O.A.C.) Chapter 4501-7 pertaining to Commercial Driver Training Schools.

The Ohio Department of Public Safety, Office of Criminal Justice Services, Driver Training Program (the "department"), was contacted by JCARR who identified an error in O.A.C. rule 4501-7-24 pertaining to biennial CDL driver training school license renewals.

In response, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, Driver Training Program, withdrew the rule from JCARR, reviewed the rule and the accompanying statute, and found that JCARR was correct. Section 4508.05 of the Revised Code provides for annual renewal of these licenses.

Pursuant to the review, O.A.C. rule 4501-7-24 was revised to comply with statute, and as the rule is subject to CSI, the rule was resubmitted to stakeholders for their feedback. Stakeholders were specifically asked to address any additional adverse impact that the revision may pose, and no additional impact was identified.

The department intends to originally file this rule with JCARR tomorrow pursuant to its review. If you have additional questions, comments or concerns please feel free to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Valerie A. Luptak
