- 7. Summarize the rule's content, and if this is an amended rule, also summarize the rule's changes.

This rule establishes the requirements for any provider of homemaker who wants to be certified by ODA.

ODA proposes to amend this rule to do the following:

On June 11, 2020, ODA also adopted an emergency amendment to the definition of "homemaker" in this rule. The amendment temporarily gave providers flexibility to consider errands outside the presence of the individual (e.g., picking up a prescription) as part of "homemaker." ODA proposes to adopt this amendment on an ongoing basis.

On June 11, 2020, ODA temporarily amended the supervisory requirements to allow subsequent supervisor visits to occur by telephone, video conference, or in person, rather than only in person. Through this rule package, ODA proposes to adopt this amendment on an ongoing basis.

Insert ", when authorized in a person-centered services plan" after "Homemaker activities include the following" in paragraph (A) of the rule, ODA proposes to insert. ODA also proposes to delete "as authorized by their case manager" from the same paragraph. This amendment will align the definition with the person-centered planning requirements in rule 5160-44-02 of the Administrative Code.

- 8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
- 9. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.75, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.
