7. What are the reasons for proposing the rule?

The proposed rule change aligns language within the rule with United States Federal legislation – the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) Simplification Act. The proposed rule change also is meant to add flexibility and make it easier for Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD) staff to calculate aid provided to participants of the OOD Vocational Rehabilitation Program.

- 8. Summarize the rule's content, and if this is an amended rule, also summarize the rule's changes.

OAC 3304-2-58 provides guidance regarding the provision of college, occupational, and vocational training for individuals with disabilities. As part of the requirements Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD) will align language in the rule with the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) Simplification Act new guidance specifically, replacing Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) which is now called the Student Aid Index (SAI), and the Student Aid Report with a FAFSA Submission Summary. There is also a revision to the language with scholarships, removing the word merit. This revision will make it easier for staff to calculate OOD contributions and allow for more flexibility. The name of the rule has been changed to Postsecondary Training to encompass the different types of training defined in the rule.

- 9. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
- 10. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.75, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.
