- (3) The operator's responsibility for the facility shall be for the duration of the agreement. This responsibility shall not be set aside by the operator's absence. The operator shall personally perform the duties imposed upon an operator by the business enterprise rules and shall not subcontract with or hire someone to perform said duties, unless on leave as stated in paragraph (A)(4) of rule 3304:1-21-04 of the Administrative Code;
- (4) The operator shall not, without the BE specialist's written approval, add to or take from the facility, any equipment;

- (d) If the operator is engaging in felonious activity on the facility premises; or
- (e) If the actions or inactions of the operator cause or allow conditions to exist, which present a clear and present danger to employees, visitors or the public.

The bureau may terminate the agreement at the end of the two-week period after OVRC has had an opportunity to review any available documentation provided by the bureau concerning the operator and any written submittal by the operator in his/her defense and by a majority vote affirming the action of the bureau. As provided by law, operators may seek compensation for wrongful suspension or termination under this paragraph.

(B) The bureau-operator agreement shall terminate upon:

- (1) Operators/licensees will be placed in rank order, the highest being the operator with the lowest average net proceeds over the twelve months preceding the date when the need for a temporary operator for the vacant facility occurs..
 - (2) If more than one operator/licensee on the temporary-assignment list has zero income, the assistant manager shall offer the temporary assignment to the licensee believed to have the best potential for operating the facility. "Zero income" means that an operator/licensee has an income of zero in the month that the bureau is filling the need for the temporary operator.
 - (3) A temporary assignment shall be offered to an operator who is currently a party to a bureau-temporary-operator agreement, after all other operators/licensees on the list have declined the temporary assignment or have been deemed unable to meet the requirements for operation of the vacant facility.
