Quantity of medical marijuana that may be purchased by a patient or caregiver.

(A) A patient and a patient's caregiver(s) may collectively purchase no less than a whole day unit at a single time. A whole day unit shall equal the amounts for each authorized form of medical marijuana as listed in the following table:

Whole Day Unit of Medical Marijuana

Authorized Form of Medical Marijuana	Whole Day Unit
Plant material	2.83 grams
Patch for transdermal administration, lotion, cream, or ointment	Up to 295 milligrams of THC
Oil, tincture, capsule, or edible for oral administration	Up to 110 milligrams of THC
Oil for vaporization	Up to 590 milligrams of THC

(B) A patient and the patient's caregiver(s) may collectively purchase no more than a ninety-day supply in accordance with the two forty-five-day fill period process established in rule 3796:7-2-04 of the Administrative Code. Ninety whole day units, aggregated across forms purchased, shall constitute a ninety-day supply of medical marijuana. A patient or caregiver may not purchase more whole day units of medical marijuana than days remaining in their fill periods as set forth in rule 3796:7-2-04 of the Administrative Code.
