6. Does the rule implement a federal law or rule in a manner that is more stringent or burdensome than the federal law or regulation requires? No
  - A. If so, what is the citation to the federal law or rule? Not Applicable
7. What are the reasons for proposing the rule?

Rule 3901-5-09 is being reviewed as part of the agency five-year rule review.
8. Summarize the rule's content, and if this is an amended rule, also summarize the rule's changes.

The purpose of rule 3901-5-09 is to set forth procedures and requirements for the licensing and appointment of insurance agents in the state of Ohio; and to identify lines of authority eligible for limited lines licenses.

The proposed amendments are recommended technical revisions to improve clarity, align more closely with current best practices in the insurance industry, and regulatory restrictions have been reduced where possible.

9. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? No
10. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.75, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.

11. If revising or re-filing the rule, please indicate the changes made in the revised or re-filed version of the rule.

Correcting a typo of the statute(s) grant rule writing authority.

II. Fiscal Analysis

12. Please estimate the increase / decrease in the agency's revenues or expenditures in the current biennium due to this rule.

This will have no impact on revenues or expenditures.

0.00

Not applicable.

13. What are the estimated costs of compliance for all persons and/or organizations directly affected by the rule?

The impacted business community consists of individual insurance agents, business entities engaging in the sale of insurance products, agent education providers, and insurers.

The nature of this impact is contained in the time and cost associated with complying with pre-licensing and continuing education requirements, as well as company compliance with appointing agents.

Both the cost and time requirements vary in regard to the line of business in which the individual is participating. Although there is a cost, these regulations can be classified as the cost of doing business and are necessary to ensure compliance with Ohio Revised Code.

Generally, the changes that were made to the rules were recommended to align current industry practice and update language, or to reduce regulatory restrictions.

14. Does the rule increase local government costs? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part B). No
15. Does the rule regulate environmental protection? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part C). No
16. If the rule imposes a regulation fee, explain how the fee directly relates to your agency's cost in regulating the individual or business.

Not applicable.
