0.00

No new costs.

12. What are the estimated costs of compliance for all persons and/or organizations directly affected by the rule?

Agencies must request criminal background checks on prospective adoptive parents and adult members of the prospective adoptive parent's household through BCI and the FBI, which currently charge a fee for the completion of the check, as well as conduct a search on online sex offender databases, which requires no fee. Additionally, the agency may need to assist in the collection of fingerprints for processing by BCI and the FBI. After the completion of the check, the agency would then be required to review the results and take appropriate action.

13. Does the rule increase local government costs? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part B). No

14. Does the rule regulate environmental protection? (If yes, you must complete an RSFA Part C). No

15. If the rule imposes a regulation fee, explain how the fee directly relates to your agency's cost in regulating the individual or business.

While the rule references a fee associated with performing a BCI and FBI background check, those fees are established and collected by those entities and not ODJFS.
