Home and community-based services waivers - participant/family stability assistance under the self-empowered life funding waiver.

(A) Purpose

The purpose of this rule is to define participant/family stability assistance and set forth provider qualifications, requirements for service delivery and documentation of services, and payment standards for these services.

(B) Definitions

- (1) "Agency provider" means an entity that employs persons for the purpose of providing services.
- (2) "County board" means a county board of developmental disabilities.
- (3) "Department" means the Ohio department of developmental disabilities.
- (4) "Family member" means a person who is related to the individual by blood, marriage, or adoption.
- (5) "Independent provider" means a person who provides services and does not employ, either directly or through contract, anyone else to provide the services.
- (6) "Individual" means a person with a developmental disability or for the purposes of giving, refusing to give, or withdrawing consent for services, his or her guardian in accordance with section 5126.043 of the Revised Code or other person authorized to give consent. An individual who is his or her own guardian may designate another person to assist the individual with development of the individual service plan and budget, selection of residence and providers, and negotiation of payment rates for services; the individual's designee shall not be employed by a county board or a provider, or a contractor or either.
- (7) "Individual service plan" means the written description of services, supports, and activities to be provided to an individual.
- (8) "Participant/family stability assistance" means training (including education and instruction) and counseling (including consultation) that enhance an individual's ability to direct his or her own services and/or enable an individual and/or family members who reside with the individual to understand how best to support the individual in order that the individual and his or her family members may live as much like other families as possible and to prevent or delay unwanted out-of-home placement.
 - (a) Participant/family stability assistance may be utilized only by the individual and family members who reside with the individual and shall be outcome-based, meaning that there shall be a specific goal for the service which is recorded in the individual service plan.

(b) Participant/family stability assistance includes training and counseling related to accommodating the individual's disability in the home, accessing supports offered in the community, effectively supporting the individual so that he or she may be fully engaged in the life of the family, and supporting the unique needs of the individual.

(c) Participant/family stability assistance includes the cost of enrollment fees and materials, but does not cover travel expenses or experimental and prohibited treatments.

(9) "Service and support administrator" means a person, regardless of title, employed by or under contract with a county board to perform the functions of service and support administration and who holds the appropriate certification in accordance with rule 5123:2-5-02 of the Administrative Code.

(10) "Service documentation" means all records and information on one or more documents, including documents that may be created or maintained in electronic software programs, created and maintained contemporaneously with the delivery of services, and kept in a manner as to fully disclose the nature and extent of services delivered that shall include the items delineated in paragraph (F) of this rule to validate payment for medicaid services.

(11) "Support broker" means a person who is responsible, on a continuing basis, for providing an individual with representation, advocacy, advice, and assistance related to the day-to-day coordination of services (particularly those associated with participant direction) in accordance with the individual service plan. The support broker assists the individual with the individual's responsibilities regarding participant direction, including understanding employer authority and budget authority, locating and selecting providers, negotiating payment rates, and keeping the focus of the services and support delivery on the individual and his or her desired outcomes. The support broker, working in conjunction with the service and support administrator, assists the individual with creating the individual service plan, developing the waiver budget, and doing day-to-day monitoring of the provision of services as specified in the individual service plan.

(12) "Usual and customary charge" means the amount charged to other persons for the same service.

(C) Provider qualifications for participant/family stability assistance-training

(1) Participant/family stability assistance-training shall be provided by an independent provider or an agency provider that:

- (a) Meets the requirements of this rule;
 - (b) Has a medicaid provider agreement with the Ohio department of job and family services; and
 - (c) Has completed and submitted an application and adheres to the requirements of rule 5123:2-2-01 of the Administrative Code, except that paragraphs (C)(3)(a), (C)(3)(b), (C)(3)(c), and (K) of that rule do not apply to providers of participant/family assistance-training.
- (2) The individual may determine additional qualifications for a provider of participant/family stability assistance-training; additional qualifications determined by the individual shall be recorded in the individual service plan.
- (3) A county board or a regional council of governments formed under section 5126.13 of the Revised Code by two or more county boards may provide participant/family stability assistance-training only when no other provider is willing and able.
- (4) Participant/family stability assistance-training shall not be provided to an individual by his or her family member.
- (5) Failure to comply with this rule and rule 5123:2-2-01 of the Administrative Code, as applicable, may result in denial, suspension, or revocation of the provider's certification.

(D) Provider qualifications for participant/family stability assistance-counseling
