Modifications.

The following sections of 9 C.F.R. part 300.4 to 9 C.F.R. part 500 are amended to read as follows:

(A) 9 C.F.R. Part 300.4(a) - Organizational terminology; personnel

"Administrator means the administrator of the Division of Meat Inspection or any officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has been or may in the future be delegated to act in his or her stead."

"District Supervisor means the official of the inspection service who is assigned responsibility for supervising the conduct of inspection at a specific group of official establishments located in what is known as a district."

"Where FSIS is used means the Division of Meat Inspection (DMI) of the Ohio Department of Agriculture."

"Inspection program, inspection service, or program means the organizational unit within the Department with responsibility for carrying out the FMIA and the PPIA."

"Inspector means an inspector of the inspection program. ("Inspector" includes an employee or official of the Ohio state government who is authorized by the director to inspect meat and meat products or poultry and poultry products under the FMIA or the PPIA, respectively, under an agreement entered into between United States department of agriculture and the appropriate state or other agency."

"Inspector in Charge or IIC means an inspection program employee who has primary responsibility for inspection program functions at a particular official establishment."

"Secretary means the director of the Ohio department of agriculture or his or her designee."

(B) 9 C.F.R. Part 301.2 - Definitions.

(1) Section 301.2 - "Inspected and passed" or "U.S. Inspected and Passed" or "U.S. Inspected and Passed by Department of Agriculture". Delete existing language and insert:

"Inspected and Passed" or "Ohio Inspected and Passed" or "Ohio Inspected and Passed by Department of Agriculture" (or any authorized abbreviation thereof). This term means that the product so identified has been inspected and passed under the regulations in this subchapter, and at the time it was inspected, passed, and indentified, it was found to be not adulterated.

- (2) Section 301.2 - U.S. condemned. Delete existing language and insert:

"Ohio Condemned. This term means that the livestock so identified has been inspected and found to be in a dying condition, or to be affected with any other condition or disease that would require condemnation of its carcass."

- (3) Section 301.2 - U.S. inspected and condemned. Delete existing language and insert"

"Ohio Inspected and Condemned (or any authorized abbreviation thereof). This term means that the carcass, viscera, other part of carcass, or other product so identified has been inspected, found to be adulterated, and condemned under the regulations in this subchapter."

- (4) Section 301.2 - U.S. passed for cooking. Delete existing language and insert:

"Ohio Passed for Cooking. This term means that the meat or meat by product so identified has been inspected and pass on condition that it be cooked or rendered as prescribed by the regulations in part 315 of this chapter."

- (5) Section 301.2 - U.S. passed for refrigeration. Delete existing language and insert:

"Ohio Passed for Refrigeration. This term means that the meat or meat byproduct so identified has been inspected and passed on condition that it be refrigerated or otherwise handled as prescribed by the regulations in part 311 of this subchapter."

- (6) Section 301.2 - U.S. retained. Delete existing language and insert:

"Ohio Retained. This term means that the carcass, viscera, or other part of carcass, or other product, or article so identified is held for further examination by an inspector to determine its disposal."

- (7) Section 301.2 - U.S. suspect. Delete existing language and insert:

"Ohio Suspect. This term means that the livestock so identified is suspected of being affected with a disease or condition which may require its condemnation, in whole or in part, when slaughtered, and is subject to further examination by an inspector to determine its disposal."

(C) 9 C.F.R. Part 303 - Exemptions.

(1) Section 303.1(a)(1). Delete existing language and insert:

"(a)(1) The slaughtering by the owner of livestock of ~~their~~<sup>his</sup> own raising on ~~their~~<sup>his</sup> own premise, or the slaughter by an individual operating a mobile facility to prepare products for the owner of the livestock on the owner's premise and the preparation by ~~them~~<sup>him</sup> and transportation in commerce of the carcasses, parts thereof, meat and meat food products of such livestock exclusively for ~~uses~~ by ~~them~~<sup>him</sup> and members of ~~their~~<sup>his</sup> household and ~~their~~<sup>his</sup> nonpaying guests and employees;"

(2) Section 303.1(a)(2)(ii). Delete existing language and insert:

"(a)(2)(ii) If the custom operator prepares or handles any products for sale, they are kept separate and apart from custom prepared inspected products at all times while the latter are in his custody: 'farm dressed custom products' (uninspected) from amenable species are not permitted in a facility operating under a retail exemption. Products originating from 'custom' operations (operator compensated only for service and not product) cannot be sold unless prepared under full inspection. Facilities preparing products for the owner's use in a retail operation would be required licensing under a custom exemption."

(3) Section 303.1(b)(3). Delete existing language and insert:

"(b)(3) The custom operators claiming exemptions under paragraph (a)(2) of this section shall keep records, in addition to records otherwise required by part 320 of this subchapter, showing the numbers and kinds of livestock slaughtered on a custom basis, and the names and addresses of the owners of the livestock and products. An animal delivered for slaughter may be listed with up to four owners with indication of the part of the animal each owner is to receive (e.g., four owners could each receive a quarter carcass of an animal delivered for custom slaughter.)"

(4) Section 303.1(b). Insert the following:

"(b)(5)(i) Exemptions based on religious dietary laws. Any person who slaughters, processes, or otherwise handles cattle, sheep, swine, or goats which have been or are to be processed as required by recognized religious dietary laws may apply for exemption from specific provisions of the act or regulations which are in conflict with such religious dietary laws. Any person desiring such an exemption shall apply in writing to the Ohio department of agriculture, meat and poultry inspection division, Reynoldsburg, Ohio 43068 setting forth the specific provisions of the act and the regulations from which exemption is sought and setting forth the provisions of the religious dietary laws in support of the requested exemption. In addition, the applicant for such an exemption shall submit a statement from the clerical official having jurisdiction over the enforcement of the religious dietary laws with respect to the cattle, sheep, swine or goats involved, which identifies the requirements of such laws pertaining to the slaughter of the livestock and the processing or other handling of the meat and meat food products involved, and certifies that such requirements are in conflict with specific provisions of the act and regulations from which the exemption is sought;"

"(b)(5)(ii) The director, upon a determination that an exemption should be granted, will grant such exemption to the extent necessary to avoid conflict with the religious requirements while still effectuating the purposes of the act. The director~~He~~ may impose such conditions as to sanitary standards, practices, and procedures in granting such an exemption as he deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of the act. Any person who processes livestock which are prepared under an exemption authorizing the sale of the meat or meat food product in commerce shall identify such product with a label approved by the administrator which identifies the clerical official under whose supervision the meat or meat food product was prepared;"

"(b)(5)(iii) The director may, by order, in accordance with applicable rules of practice suspend or terminate any exemption under section 303.1(b)(5) with respect to any person whenever he finds that such action will aid in effectuating the purposes of the act. Failure to comply with the conditions of the exemption, including, but not limited to, failure to process livestock and/or meat and meat food products under clean and sanitary conditions may result in termination of an exemption, in addition to any other ~~penalties~~penalties provided by law;"

"(b)(5)(iv) Whenever a slaughterer or processor is granted an exemption under section 303.1(b)(5) with respect to the slaughter or processing of livestock and/or meat and meat food products under this part, under specified conditions, the sale, offer for sale, transportation and other handling in commerce by any person of such livestock and/or meat and meat food products in accordance with such conditions is hereby authorized, except as restricted by the act; and,"

"(b)(5)(v) Inspectors of the inspection service are authorized to make inspections in accordance with law to ascertain whether any of the provisions of the act or regulations applying to producers, retailers, or other persons purporting to be exempt from any requirements under this subpart have been violated."

(5) Section 303.1(d)(2)(iv)(b) - amend existing language to read:

"(d)(2)(iv)(b) For purposes of this paragraph..."the definition of a restaurant includes a caterer whose employees or designated volunteers delivers or serves product in meals, or as entree', only to individual consumers and otherwise meets the requirements of this paragraph."

(6) Section 303:1(d)(2)(iv)(c). Amend existing language to read:

"(d)(2)(iv)(c) For purposes of this paragraph...by its own employees, or a volunteer desingated by the restaurant, without intervening transfer or storage..."

(D) 9 C.F.R. part 500 - Withdrawal of inspection; statement of policy.

(1) Section 500.6. Withdrawal of inspection; statement of policy. Supplement existing language and insert:

"(a) The director is authorized to withdraw inspection from an official establishment where the sanitary conditions are such that its products are rendered adulterated, or for failure of the operator to destroy condemned products as required by the act and regulations in this subchapter. Inspection may be withdrawn in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and the establishment ordered to cease those operations subject to this chapter:

"(a)(1) The assignment of inspectors may be temporarily suspended, in whole or in part, by the director to the extent it is determined necessary to avoid impairment of the effective conduct of the program when the operator of any official establishment or any subsidiary therein, or any officer, employee, or agent of any such operator or any subsidiary therein, acting within the scope of his office, employment, or agency, threatens to forcibly assault or forcibly assaults, generally displays an uncooperative attitude, intimidates, or interferes with any program employee, including disregard for retain/reject tags, in or on account of the performance of his official duties under the act, unless promptly upon the incident being documented and brought by an authorized supervisor of the program employee to the attention of the operator of the establishment the operator (1) satisfactorily justifies the incident, (2) takes effective steps to prevent a recurrence, or (3) provides acceptable assurances in writing that there will not be any recurrences. If the efforts of district supervision are fruitless, the situation will be forwarded to central office for possible assignment to the enforcement section of the department. In all cases written documentation of each incident shall be included in the plant permanent record. Any such suspension shall remain in effect until one of such actions is taken by the operator: Provided, that upon request of the operator he shall be afforded an opportunity for an expedited hearing to show cause why the suspension should be terminated. At the discretion of the chief of the division of meat inspection any of the following actions may be taken: (1) send a letter of warning, (2) schedule a hearing for plant management, (3) initiate further legal actions under a section of law; and,

"(a)(2) Inspection service may be temporarily suspended, in whole or in part, at an official establishment, by the director, to the extent that it is determined necessary to prevent inhumane slaughtering or handling in connection with slaughter of livestock as defined in 9 C.F.R. 301.2(kk). The administrator shall notify the operator of an establishment orally or in writing, as promptly as circumstances permit, of such suspension and the reason therefor. Such suspension shall remain in effect until the operator of the establishment takes effective steps to prevent a recurrence, and provides district supervision satisfactory assurances that there will not be any recurrences. Upon request, the operator shall be afforded an opportunity for a hearing to show cause why the suspension should be terminated."

"(b) Denial or withdrawal of service:

"(1) For disciplinary reasons:

"(i) Basis for denial or withdrawal. An application or request for service may be rejected, or the benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to, or withdrawn from, any person who, or whose employee or agent in the scope of his employment or agency:

"(A) Has willfully made any misrepresentation or has committed any other fraudulent or deceptive practice in connection with any application or request for service under the regulations in this chapter;

"(B) Has given or attempted to give as a loan or for any other purpose, any money, favor, or other thing of value, to any employee of the department authorized to perform any function under the regulations in this chapter;

"(C) Has interfered with or obstructed, or attempted to interfere with or to obstruct, any employee of the department in the performance of his duties under the regulations in this chapter by intimidation, threats, assaults, abuse, or any other improper means;

"(D) Has knowingly falsely made, issued, altered, forged, or counterfeited any official certificate, memorandum, mark, or other identification, or device for making any such mark or identification authorized or issued under this chapter;

"(E) Has knowingly uttered, published, or used as true any such falsely made, issued, altered, forged, or counterfeited certificate, memorandum, mark,

identification, or device;

"(F) Has knowingly obtained or retained possession of any such falsely made, issued, altered, forged or counterfeited certificate, memorandum, mark, identification or device, or of any carcass or meat or meat food product bearing any such falsely made, issued, altered, forged, or counterfeited certificate, memorandum, mark, identification;

"(G) Has knowingly represented that any carcass, meat, or meat food product has been officially inspected and passed (by an authorized inspector) under this chapter when it had not in fact been so inspected;

"(H) Has, within the previous ten years, been convicted of any felony or more than one misdemeanor under any law based upon the acquiring, handling, or distributing of adulterated, mislabeled, or deceptively packaged food, or fraud in connection with transactions in food, or any felony indicating a lack of the integrity needed for the conduct of operations affecting the public health;

"(I) Has in any manner not specified in this paragraph violated any part of the Ohio Revised Code. Provided, that paragraph (b)(1)(i)(F) of this section shall not be deemed to be violated if the person in possession of any item mentioned therein notifies the inspector without delay that he has possession of such item and, in the case of an official device, surrenders it to the inspector, and, in the case of any other item, surrenders it to the inspector or destroys it or brings it into compliance with the regulations by obliterating or removing the violative features under supervision of the inspector; and provided further, that an application or a request for service may be rejected, or the benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to, or withdrawn from any person who operates an establishment for which he has made application for service if, with the knowledge of such operator, any other person conducting any operations in such establishment has committed any of the offenses specified in paragraph (b)(1)(i)(A) through (b)(1)(i)(J) of this section after such application was made. Moreover, an application or a request for service made in the name of a person otherwise eligible for service under the regulations may be rejected, or the benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to, or withdrawn from such a person (1) in case the service is or would be performed at an establishment operated (i) by a corporation, partnership, or other person from whom the benefits of the service are currently being withheld under this chapter, or (ii) by a corporation, partnership, or other person having an officer, director, partner, or substantial investor from whom the benefits of service under this chapter are currently being withheld and who has any authority with respect to the establishment where service is or would be performed, or (2) in case the service is or would be performed with respect to any meat or meat food product in which any corporation, partnership, or other person within (1)(i) of this section has a contract or other financial interest; and,"

"(J) Procedure. An application or request for service may be rejected, or benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to or withdrawn by the director, as provided in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code after notice and opportunity for hearing before a proper official of the department. The director may reject an application or request for service or deny or withdraw service under this paragraph without hearing, pending final determination of the matter, when he determines that the public interest so requires. The operator or applicant of such plant shall be notified of the director's decision to reject the application or request for service or to deny or withdraw such service, and the reason therefor, in writing, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code or orally. The director's decision to reject an application or request for service or to deny or withdrawn the benefits of service under the act shall be effective upon such oral or written notification, whichever is earlier, to the operator or applicant of such plant. If such notification is oral, the director shall confirm such decision, and the reasons therefor, in writing, as promptly as circumstances permit, and such written confirmation shall be served upon the operator or applicant of such plant in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code."

"(c) For correctable cause:

"(1) Basis for denial or withdrawal. An application or request for service may be rejected, or the benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to, or withdrawn from, any person whose establishment does not meet the requirements as to premises, facilities, and equipment, and the operation thereof, prescribed in the regulations to prevent the distribution of adulterated meat or meat food products, or who has not received approval of labeling and containers to be used at the establishment as required by the regulations; and,

"(2) Procedure. An application or request for service may be rejected, or benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to or withdrawn by the director, as provided by this paragraph, after notice and opportunity for hearing before a proper official of the department. The director may reject an application or request for service or deny or withdraw service under this paragraph without hearing, pending final determination of the matter, when he determines that the public interest so requires. The operator or applicant of such plant shall be notified of the director's decision to reject the application or request for service or to deny or withdraw such service, and the reason therefor, in writing, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code or orally. The director's decision to reject an application or request for service or to deny or withdraw the benefits of service under the act shall be effective upon such oral or written notification, whichever is earlier, to the operator or applicant of such plant. If such notification is oral, the director shall confirm such decision, and the reasons therefor, in writing, as promptly as circumstances permit, and such written confirmation shall be served upon the operator or applicant of such plant in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code."

"(3) For miscellaneous reasons. An application or request for service may be rejected, or the benefits of the service may be otherwise denied to, or withdrawn from, any person, without a hearing: (i) for administrative reasons such as the nonavailability of personnel to perform the service; (ii) for failure to pay for the service; (iii) in case the application or request relates to animals or food products which are not eligible for service under parts 300 through 329; or (iv) in case the person is a partnership, corporation, or other person from whom the benefits of the service are currently being withheld under paragraph (c)(1) of this section. Notice of such rejection, denial, or withdrawal, and the reasons therefor shall promptly be given to the person involved. The operator or applicant of such plant shall be notified of such decisions to reject an application or request for service or deny or withdraw the benefits of the service, and the reason therefor, in writing, in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code or orally. Such decision shall be effective upon such oral or written notification, whichever is earlier, to the operator nor applicant of such plant. If such notification is oral, the person making such decision shall confirm such decision, and the reason therefor, in writing, as promptly as circumstances permit, and such written confirmation shall be served upon the operator or applicant of such plant in the manner prescribed in Chapter 119. of the Revised Code."
