Incorporated Comments into Rule(s)

Indicate how comments received during the hearing process were incorporated into the rule(s). If no comments were incorporated, explain why not.

The Department did not make changes to the following rules:

- OAC 3796:5-6-01 - Several commenters stated that the amendments to the rule could potentially remove protections for trade secret and investigatory information. The Department is sensitive to the concerns of the commenters however, the legislature did not include express authority to create an exception to public records law when it enacted R.C. 3796. Express statutory authority is required from the legislature to create an exception to the Public Records Act. See State ex rel. Gallon & Takacs Co., L.P. v. Conrad, 123 Ohio App.3d 554, 704 N.E.2d 638 (10th Dist.1997). The Department could be subjected to writ of mandamus actions if it withheld documents under currently enacted Ohio Adm.Code 3796:5-6-01(D). Under the new construction, the Department would continue to withhold public release of trade secret documents, enforcement documents, and any other documents permitted by the Public Records Act and accompanying case law.
- OAC 3796:2-2-03 - No changes were made because the comments provided were in support of the proposed amendments.
- OAC 3796:5-6-04 - No changes were made because the comments provided were in support of the new rule.

- OAC 3796:3-2-03 - No changes were made because the comments provided were in support of the proposed amendments.
